

'Being the best that we can be'

29th March 2017

Dear Parents,

First Confession Day is tomorrow, Thursday 30th March, in St Patrick's Church, Lisburn.

There is Mass at 10am, however, we will walk the Primary 3 children to the Church to arrive after Mass at 10.30am.

After 10am Mass, Fr McCaughan will host a short Penitential Service for the P3 children, concluding with each child making their First Confession.

The children will occupy the first four rows on both sides of the Church and parents can sit in the rows behind them.

When each child has finished their Confession with the Priest, he/she will come down from the altar to meet you.

When you see your child come down from the altar, you come out into the centre aisle to meet and hug your child. You will then return to your seat and your child will return to theirs.

The Primary 3 children will come back to school afterwards where they will have a celebration after lunch as it is such a special occasion for them.

We look forward to celebrating with you, another milestone in your child's life!

Yours sincerely,

Pauline Fleming
